Success is a Choice

Dear Reader,

We are very pleased to present you our strain of racing pigeons in this catalogue. These pigeons are the foundation of our achievements, but also of the successes in many other lofts throughout the world. We are continually striving to reach greater heights with our pigeons. Apart from the necessary quality of the pigeons, a good health care and feeding program is a prime requirement to win. Together with PigeonHP and Beyers we could find the right balance. You can read more about our system on the following pages.

It is said that the quality of the pigeons in the breeding loft is the foundation for success: may this catalogue guide you in finding the best pigeons for your breeding loft!

Yours in the Sport,
Family Thoné

PROLOGUE

Jos Thoné (1961) is one of the leading names in pigeon racing, both in Belgium and abroad. In 1991 he settled in As with his wife Gabriella, the youngest daughter to his father-in-law and mentor Thomas Peeters. From that year onwards, he managed to create a magnificent strain of racing pigeons, winning from sprint to extreme long distance. The Thoné Strain is doing very well in pigeon races across the globe – from the American continent over Europe to China – and this in turn has made Jos Thoné a world-famous fancier.

The outstanding record list of Jos Thoné:

- 4x World Champion
- 6x 'Gouden Duif'
- 5x Olympiad Pigeon
- 7x 1. National
- 2x 1. International
- 1x Overall National Champion KBDB
- 1x National Champion KBDB young birds
- 12x 1. National Champion BDS
- 14x 1. National Champion LCB
- 1x National Champion KBDB long distance, yearlings

"The quality of the breeding base is the foundation for success in every loft." – Jos Thoné

Thoné is known as a true all-round pigeon fancier performing consistently at the highest level on all distances. Jos continues to adapt his methods to the evolving sport of pigeon racing. He has successfully introduced various innovative methods and ideas, that have later been adopted by many fanciers (e.g. in-loft construction and interior installation, blackout with supplementary lighting, full-widowhood and having one pigeon winning exceptionally in five National races in the same season, etc.). Jos is just as motivated and passionate about pigeon racing as in his early days and is now passing his love for pigeons on to his sons, Maxim (1994) and Xavier (1989).

Quality from the base

It is said that a chain is only as strong as its weakest link. In Jos Thoné's racing team, there is no place for followers. Piece by piece the birds of the racing team are at first strictly selected by Jos to be tested in the races afterwards. And this is the strength of the colony of the world champion from Belgium: the quality of the whole team. Each pigeon must be capable of winning a race.

Jos gives top-priority to breeding superior pigeons: you have to breed from the best. When a fancier does not have enough quality, one has to acquire better quality from other lofts. Confidence is essential, it is confidence in the other fancier that makes the difference in the sport. The purchase of the best pigeons is not always a matter of money, but mostly it is a matter of trust in the fellow fancier.

After breeding, the offspring needs to be raced and selected. A pigeon fancier has to be patient and try different ways of breeding (e.g. pairing) in order to reach his/her goal. Jos pays a lot of attention to his breeders' ancestries. The pigeons either need to be champions, or they have to descend from champions before they get a place in his breeding loft. But also, the handling of the pigeon needs to be 100% to his personal satisfaction. But there is still one essential point: the best pigeon does never guarantee a winning position. The real challenge lies in selecting the right pigeon for the right race, at the right time.

When Britain made a breakthrough in the international racing scene with Brian Sheppard winning the Dax International in 2003 the blood of the Thoné strain from Belgium played a significant part in that victory for the winner carried that blood in his veins. When the same loft was 2nd International from Dax the following year (2004) their bird carried the blood of the Thoné family of pigeons. Significantly both pigeons are half-brothers and the Sheppard family have seen at first hand the worth of the Thoné strain.

THE THONÉ STRAIN

Most breeding birds in Jos Thoné's stock loft can be related to four different bloodlines. Icons of the short distance lineage are without doubt 'Avril' (Olympiad Pigeon, 20x 1st prize), 'Cavendish' (1st Provincial Acebird KBDB speed) and 'Kajo' (1st Provincial Acebird KBDB speed, 14x 1st prize). New hits are 'Babe' (1st National Acebird LCB, 1st Provincial Acebird KBDB speed), 'Sua' (23x 1st prize) and 'Sacha' (7x 1st prize, half-sister to 'Sachi').

In the middle to long distance disciplines the following pigeons (and in the past many others) have proven their weight in gold. 'Sachi' (BE12-5030350) won 1st National La Souterraine of 19.155 birds (fastest La Souterraine ever and 50m head start). Her superb performance in the longer middle distance did not prevent 'Sachi' from procreating several winning grandchildren such as 'Candira' (11x 1st prize, 4th Provincial of 4.600 birds / 7th National of 4.203 birds and Olympiad Pigeon 2020), 'Star' (2nd of 885 birds / 4th of 1.612 birds / 5th of 1.459 birds / 12th of 1.756 birds) or 'Storm' (29th of 22.476 birds).

'Sedna' (BE04-5026055) won 1st International Narbonne of 5.870 birds, 7th Semi-National Jarnac of 5.005 birds, won 1st West-European Country Cup long distance as well as 1st National Acebird LCB and 1st Provincial Acebird KBDB. Meanwhile this 'wonder pigeon' is (great-) grandmother to 8x 1st National zone, 2x 1st National and 5x 1st Provincial winners. Important children of 'Sedna' are 'Sendo' (father 'Gaggan' as well as grandfather to 'Babe') or 'Sedmos' (breeder of no less than 5 generations of winners).

The pure marathon lineage is based on the well-known hen 'Poco Diego' (won 1st International Barcelona yearlings in 1993 and 1st National Barcelona hens in 1995) or the line of the favorite pigeon of Jos Thoné at the time in the lofts of Thomas Peeters, namely 'Diego Armando Barcelona'! Finally, the lineage of the legendary 'Gouden Grijze' (BE65-3065077) is still dominating the pedigrees of the extreme long-distance pigeons. She is probably the most famous grizzle pigeon ever raced and is ancestress to 'Kleine Molenaar' (BE98-5075521), 'Mooiste Reus' (BE90-5105244) and 'Valentino' (BE92-5335439), father to Jos' most recent basic marathon breeding bird 'Crow' (BE05-5148626). Mostly all top-class, grizzle, long-distance birds in the world have 'Gouden Grijze' blood running through their veins.

Nearly all top performers in Jos Thoné's lofts can be related to one or more of the above-mentioned families and they guarantee a great chance of success.

The Thoné breeding loft consists of 50 breeding pairs, being 65% short to middle distance and the rest long to extreme long-distance pairs. The racing team consists of one loft mostly long-distance pigeons (Thoné X+M), including one group particularly for the Barcelona race. Hence, there are two lofts of short to heavy middle-distance pigeons. All birds race under the system of "total widowhood", with exception of the Barcelona-group.

HIGHLIGHTS

In a regular season, Jos Thoné competes in every single race on the calendar, from Mettet (101 km) to Barcelona (1.108 km). Jos is one of few who manages to excel on all distances and under all weather conditions. Even in 2020, when the season was delayed for two months, Jos could put his expertise to good use and come up with clever solutions to make this difficult season highly successful. You will find our most important results of 2019 and 2020 below.

A SYSTEM WITHOUT SECRETS!

A fundamental pillar of Jos Thoné's racing philosophy is simplicity. According to Jos, one should try to eliminate unnecessary work in order to focus as much as possible on the pigeon. As a true all-round fancier – with the goal to win at all distances – Jos needs an all-round and versatile mixture that is adapted to his racing system. Additionally, he wants to use it during moulting and breeding season. In a nutshell: Beyers Premium Thoné Olympic is that true all-round and versatile mixture that Thoné uses all-year round for all pigeons. During specific seasons we add a limited quantity of other mixtures such as extra carbohydrates and fats during racing (Galaxy Sport Energy and Galaxy Long Distance TT).

Finding the perfect combination between pigeon feed and nutrition supplements is part of every pigeon fanciers' quest to win the races. To keep his pigeons healthy and to maintain their condition at optimum level, Jos follows the complete program of Pigeon Health & Performance. These products provide the necessary nutrients for all pigeons during racing, moulting as well as breeding.

Similar to the Beyers pigeon feed, the Pigeon Health & Performance products have been developed together with Jos Thoné. During the years of research and testing, Jos discovered that he needed only a few specific products to get his pigeons to perform at the highest-level year after year.

> "Once you have found the right mix of products, you'll have to learn to give the right amount at exactly the right time." – Jos Thoné

Jos always and unconditionally races under the full widowhood system (with the exception of Barcelona). To facilitate easy use of that system, each section of his loft is in two parts. There is a part for the widowers with nest boxes and a cage on the rear side of it with an open front and roof- shaped perches for the hen pigeons. The pigeons are raced weekly from April to September at the different distances.

'Crow' is the founding breeder of all long distance, grizzle pigeons in our loft. Meanwhile he is sire to a worldwide legacy of champions. The colour comes from the infamous 'Gouden Grijze' anno 1965 from Thomas Peeters. On the following page you will find the pedigree from the original 'Gouden Grijze'. It may not be clear in the picture, but after more than 50 years of breeding the colour has been retained perfectly. It is said that mostly all top-class, grizzle, long-distance pigeons in the world have 'Gouden Grijze' blood running through their veins.
